HOW INCETATUS WAS BEATEN.

Jockey Scherrer burned up a lot of money for the public and Drexel Stable people yesterday at Ideal Park. He had the mount on Incetatus, who was backed from even money off the boards to win the last race. When it looked as though the colt had the race at his mercy, Scherrer took a nap, and in trying to draw the finish line was beaten a short head by Cogmosey. Incetatus showed to be far the best youngster of the lot and had he been piloted by a stable hand would no doubt have won. The winner of the race is out of that once famous old mare Marion C and looks a good deal like her.

Tuesday's crowd was much better than Monday's, and, although the card was light, it was well balanced and the racing was fairly interesting. The track is still quite slow. It needs a lot of water to freshen and give the soil elasticity. Yesterday's racing feature was a handicap at nine furlongs, and in it Merry Monarch turned the tables on Sunburst, defeating him in a drive by a scant length. There was three pounds difference in favor of Merry Monarch and the result a natural one.

The train service improves daily and one of the specials made the trip in fifty-eight minutes. Cash Day is now at Lexington, doing well, and will be shipped to California in Sam Hildreth's stable this winter.

WAS REDWOOD A RINGER?

Bets on the fourth race at Newport were not paid off last night. Redwood, the winner, said to be in Chicago hands, is suspected of being a ringer. He won in such style as to make suspicion natural. He is said to have won in Kansas City recently. There is no record of such victory. He was entered by M. Caldwell as a chestnut gelding, aged, by Woodlands-Inca—an improbable pedigree. Then again Redwood was backed from 10 to 5 to 1.

Winner—B. m. 6, by Joe Daniels—Louise.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won with something to spare on the end; second and third driving hard. Little Dorritt faltered at the head of the stretch, but came on again gamely under punishment. Santa Cruz crowded Ethelinda into the rail all down the stretch. Both were very tired. Inverlike was a trifle short. It was a poor lot.

Winner—Ch. f, by Terra Cotta—Emma B.
Post 30 seconds. Start good. Won hard driven; second and third the same. Boy pulled Vanessa up shortly after start and she was never a contender. Tom Smith was heavily played, but ran a shocking race. Her Excellence had plenty of speed, but was not fit, and stopped when she seemed to be running the easiest. Moscow ran a good game race. Watch him. Hessville is faint hearted.

Winner—Br. h. a. by Hindoo—Ramballetta.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won all out; second driving hard and gaining fast on the end; third rather handily. It was a true run race for all but Eagle Bird who was badly cut off on first turn. Semper Lex was in rather light and ran an excellent race. He will be hard to beat next out. Onalaska was raced off his feet trying to hang Merry Monarch. Boy took Sunburst very wide on stretch turn. Annalyle has gone all to pieces.
